Certification: I, the vendor, hereby certify that the items or services purchased with this certificate have been or will be delivered by me or my agent to the above-named purchaser on the qualified reservation indicated above where the purchaser is a resident.

Signature of vendor  Date

By accepting this certificate you are authorized to sell tangible personal property (but not cigarettes), motor fuel, diesel motor fuel (including heating oil) and services to tangible personal property or real property, to the above-named Indian exempt from state taxes otherwise due on a retail sale.

Failure to comply with the requirements outlined in this certificate may subject you to liability for tax and the imposition of civil and criminal sanctions including penalty assessment, loss of product and the suspension or revocation of any license or registration.
Instructions for purchasers
This exemption certificate may only be used by an Indian who:
• is the direct purchaser and payer of record, and
• is an enrolled member of one of the exempt nations or tribes listed below, and
• is purchasing tangible personal property (but not cigarettes), motor fuel, diesel motor fuel, heating oil, or services, and
• is purchasing such property or services for personal use and not for resale, and
• is taking delivery of the property or service on a qualified reservation for the nation or tribe listed below.

Except for motor vehicles as described below, there is no exemption for products, goods or services delivered off the reservation.

If the vehicle registration confirms that the Indian resides on a qualified reservation and the Indian is an enrolled member of one of the exempt nations or tribes listed below, the Indian may take possession of the motor vehicle anywhere in New York State without paying sales tax.

Use of this certificate
To claim exemption, Part I of this certificate must be properly completed by the purchaser and given to each vendor at the time of the first purchase from that vendor. A "properly completed" certificate is one on which the purchaser has entered all required information before the certificate is presented to the vendor for the vendor's certification. A separate certificate is not necessary for each additional purchase from that vendor, provided the above conditions are met at the time of each subsequent purchase.

Instructions for vendors
All vendors must collect the appropriate state taxes on the receipts from sales to an Indian unless the Indian gives the vendor a properly completed exemption document. Vendors making sales to Indians who are purchasing for personal use may accept this certificate as proof of exemption from sales tax if:
• the conditions listed in Instructions for purchasers are met, and
• the purchaser gives them a properly completed Form DTF-801, and
• the vendor delivers the property or service (with the exception of a motor vehicle) on the reservation, regardless of where purchased and attests to that delivery by completing Part II of this certificate.

Note: Vendors cannot accept this certificate for cigarettes.

Vendors must keep this certificate for at least three years after the due date of the last return to which it relates, or the date when that return was filed, if later. Every vendor accepting an exemption certificate must maintain a method of associating sales made to exempt purchasers with the certificates on file. Every vendor must also comply with all other record keeping requirements. Books and records are subject to audit by the Department of Taxation and Finance.
